“There are set prices, so kids know exactly what the cost is going to be up front. When I have done orders with Image Market and Custom Ink, it was a guessing game about the price until I had final verbal orders and then I would get kids that wouldn't pay, and then that would throw off the prices for the other kids. I like that I can give the kids an order form with the set prices, so I can collect their order and payment quickly.”
